KKL

Ben W. Perotin

Attorney

Ben.Perotin@KKLllp.com

Ben Perotin represents individuals and institutions in criminal and civil matters, with a focus on criminal defense, internal investigations, regulatory enforcement, and complex civil litigation.

Ben has represented clients in connection with investigations conducted by the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), and state attorneys general. He has experience in matters involving allegations of fraud, market manipulation, bribery, workplace discrimination, and breaches of fiduciary duty. Ben has both defense and plaintiff-side experience in complex commercial litigation. He has also represented clients in investigations conducted in response to internal whistleblower complaints.

Prior to joining the firm, Ben worked as a litigation associate at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. Previously, Ben served as a law clerk to the Honorable Anthony J. Scirica of the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

Representative Matters

- Represented former cryptocurrency trader in DOJ investigation and prosecution of alleged wire fraud and money laundering.
- Represented co-founder of proprietary high speed trading firm in DOJ and SEC investigation and multiple complex private civil class action suits regarding the collapse of the Terra/Luna crypto ecosystem.
- Defended former CFO of a publicly traded company in SEC action regarding alleged false disclosures and statements to auditors.

Credentials

EDUCATION

J.D., New York University
Order of the Coif and magna cum laude

B.A., Georgetown University cum laude

CLERKSHIPS

Hon. Anthony J. Scirica, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit

- Represented a group of family members of victims of 9/11, pro bono, in support of plea agreements reached between defendants and military commissions prosecutors.

Admissions

New York

U.S. District Court, SDNY

U.S. Court of Appeals, D.C. Circuit

U.S. Supreme Court